TO THE PUBLIC.—Whereas the house of Rev. M. P. Kinney, Pastor of the Congregational church of this city, was destroyed by fire at Racine on the 23d inst.; said house being uninsured and the accumulated savings of many years' labor—his friends are desirous of tendering him a donation, and thus endeavor to lessen the loss so suddenly fallen upon him, and will meet for that purpose on Thursday evening, the 29th inst., at the Court Room, in Myers' block. All friendly to the enterprise are cordially invited to meet with us.

J. W. STOREY,
F. S. ELDRED,
JOHN P. HOYT,
Committee.

DEATH OF J. C. JOHNSON.—John C. Johnson died in Madison last Friday, in 78th year of his age. Gen. Johnson was for many years a resident in this vicinity, and very generally known in this section of the state.

CHARTER AMENDMENTS.—We publish today the amendments to the city charter as passed by the legislature. Several changes were made after they were reported from the committee of revisors, and for this reason we publish the act as passed, though its main features have been already published.

AND TO MR. KINNEY.—We publish a notice this afternoon that a meeting will be held at the court room Thursday evening next to restore, in part at least, the loss suffered by the Rev. M. P. Kinney in the destruction of his dwelling house in Racine. This loss falls heavily upon Mr. K., as in it was invested the accumulation of twenty-years' hard labor. We are gratified to see such an effort in his behalf, and hope our citizens will contribute liberally. As a clergyman, a man and a citizen, Mr. K. has earned the respect and confidence of all who knew him.

THE RICH MEN OF PHILADELPHIA.—A Philadelphia correspondent says:

"The rich men of Philadelphia have never figured so conspicuously in print as those of other large cities. Our tax list gives us some insight into the mystery of their purses. Strangely enough, the second on the list has carved out the whole of his vast fortune within twenty years. This is Dr. David Jayne, whose real estate is assessed at $439,000, though worth a half more. He came here some twenty years ago, from a small town in New Jersey, and commenced the patent medicine business, without capital, and almost unknown. But he has worked himself up to the top of the ladder, his great lever being advertising. The newspapers have made him. He has probably made $100,000 per annum in advertising his wares, and now runs steam presses on his own premises in making labels for his preparations.

After him comes George W. Carpenter, another druggist, who, having grown rich by advertising, is assessed at $380,000 on real estate alone. Dr. James Rush is highest on the list, his estate being put down at $450,000. Dr. John Rue Barton represents $195,000, so that physic and medicine men seem to be on the royal road to wealth. After these come our business men, whose real estate is valued as follows: James Francis Fisher, $250,000; John Wistar, $180,000; J. S. Lovering, $170,000; J. C. Durand, $85,000; John A. Brown, $200,000; Townsend Sharpley, $225,000; John J. Ridgway, $375,000; Richard Wistar, $325,000; and so on, so that 45 names represent $7,500,000. Death has, within a few years, divided up all the millionaire estates we had among us.

WHERE THE KNOW NOTHINGS GO.—The Enquirer records the fact and rejoices thereat—that the American (know nothing) members of both houses of the Louisiana legislature, held at Baton Rouge, on the 10th ult., passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the secretary of this meeting be instructed to inform the democratic members of the legislature now in caucus in the capitol, that we ourselves agree to unite with them in sustaining the nominee of the Charleston convention."

The Enquirer heads the announcement, "Going over to the democracy in a body," and speaks of it as "one of the most surprising political movements of the day." Not at all surprising, neighbors. The whole know nothing party has been gravitating towards pro-slavery democracy for a long time. Besides, it is but a "retort courteous" for the recent action of the democracy, whose representative in congress "went over to the know nothings" in a body, in the late struggle for the speakership. —Grand Rapids Eagle.
